CLASS UPDATE

Ikigai Class

Sixth Form celebrated the hairy, scary, sweet and sticky world created in Roald Dahl's stories in assembly for Roald Dahl day. We were all winners of the lucky golden ticket and got to take our own bookmarks home. Bartley from Ubuntu class was an excellent co assembly lead, giving everyone a scrumdillyumptious welcome!

MESSAGE FROM HEAD OF SCHOOL

It has been a lovely week, especially seeing some of our new students reconnecting with old friends on the playground. Since my message last week, we have had the transport compliance team out this week to check on the vehicles and crews coming into school. This is a standard procedure and nothing to be concerned about, but also allows us to reiterate any issues that there have been with transport so far. Crews have all been instructed again by Bucks not to arrive before 9.10 am and 3.10pm.

There are a couple of events coming up which I want to highlight. Firstly, Friday 27th September is the Macmillan coffee morning. We aim to do this each year with all profits going paid directly to Macmillan. Secondly, parents evening will be on Wednesday 9th October and more details will follow.

I hope you have a good weekend.

SIGN OF THE WEEK

WEEKLY BEHAVIOUR TIPS

Consistency and predictability is key to supporting children with SEND. Please help us to provide consistency between home and school by using the same vocabulary/ language at home.

USEFUL INFORMATION

COME AND JOIN US!

There is one week to go until our Macmillan Coffee Morning being held here at Stocklake Park. Come along and join us for coffee and cake as we help raise funds to support those living with cancer in the UK.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Have a great weekend.
