

STOCKLAKE PARK SCHOOL WEEKLY BULLETIN – Friday 19th January 2024

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Message from the Head of School:

Panto - M & M Productions are coming in on Friday 26th January to perform Jack & The Beanstalk. There will be morning and afternoon sessions as well as being streamed into classrooms for those students who cannot access the hall.

Makaton - we have seven parents currently signed up to the Makaton course and we will be holding a further Makachat café on the 8th of February. More information will follow.

Parent workshops - we have now secured the date of 1st May for the Preparation for Adulthood workshop. We have invited a number of professionals to attend to share information about many of the aspects of transitioning to adulthood, including benefits and deputyship. Further information will come out nearer the time.

Have a good weekend.

Rhonda

Snow Drop Walk, West Wycombe Park

On Sunday 4th February our annual Snowdrop Walk returns to West Wycombe Park and we would love to see you there. As usual you will have an opportunity to enjoy the beautiful grounds and plant a snowdrop in memory of someone special.

Children can enjoy a treasure hunt and you can finish your walk with hot food, cakes and refreshments at West Wycombe Village Hall, where further children's activities will be taking place.

Early bird rates apply if you book online ahead of the event at: Snowdrop Walk in Buckinghamshire | Child Bereavement UK
